

The Margherita Pizza

We learn from an old story that in June of 1889,
Neapolitan pizza maker, Raffaele Esposito, wanted to honor Queen Margherita of Italy.

He added tomatoes, mozzarella, and basil to a pizza, which contained the red, white, and green colors represented on the Italian flag.

The Queen enjoyed it so much that she sent written compliments and thanks to Raffaele.

The proud pizzaiolo named the pizza after the Queen - Pizza Margherita!

Italian Flag

1	3	2

Color by Number

1 - Green

2 - Red

3 - White

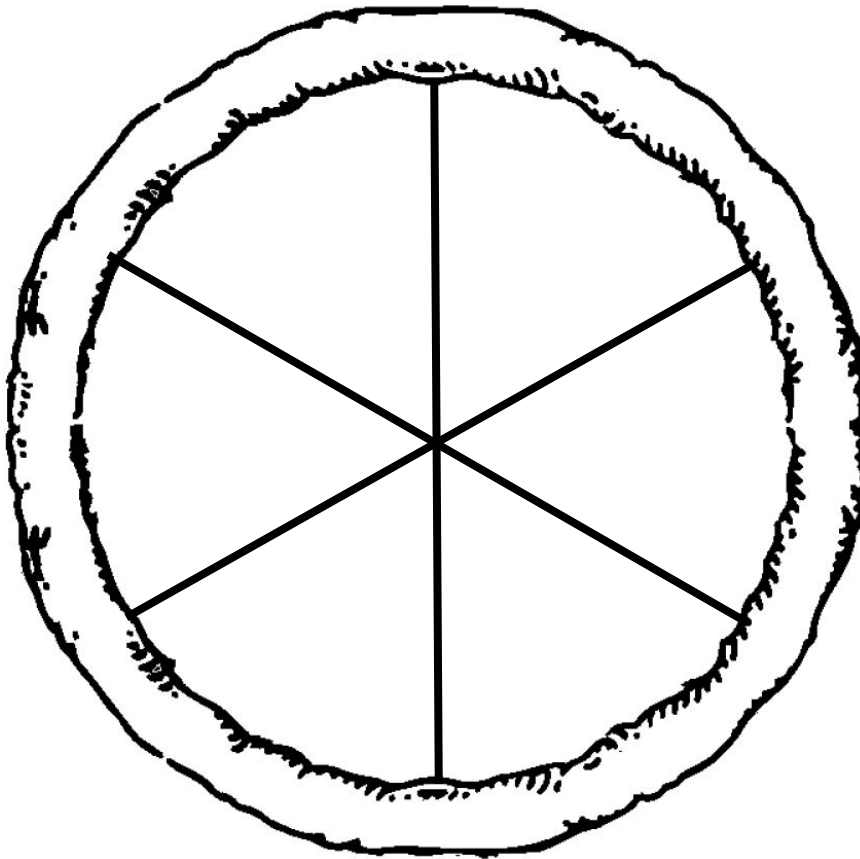

Naples is where this type of pizza was created.

Create Your Own Pizza

Using the color guide below, create your own Margherita Pizza!

Sauce - Red Mozzarella Cheese - White Basil - Green

No Matter How You Slice It, We're Going To Get Through This Together.

Leave a message for our community and world. #pizzaandprayers
